Money Donated By Kindly Folk Sends Happy Family On Way to Pleasant Home

A woman and four little children left Oklahoma City this morning on the Frisco's 10:35 train for a destination in Arkansas. The children were brightly, cleanly frocked, happy as larks, they were going on a long journey to a new home, where grandfather would care tenderly for them, see that they had plenty to eat and a good place to sleep.

That group was the family of which the Times wrote editorially Friday, the family that could find peace and security if it had only $30. The money came. Fred C. Clarke, state agent for the Aetna Insurance company with offices in the American bank building, appeared Saturday and demanded to know if the money had been received. It hadn't. "Give me a blank check," he asked. He filled it out for $30. "Give that to that mother," he said. He didn't give his name because he didn't care to have his act known, but he had to sign the check and that's how the Times found out who he was.

Solicits for Funds.

There was another man who canvassed the members of the Wilson-Morris family club. But do you know what he did? He canvassed his friends all day, and he raised $26.60, which he turned over to the Times. Somebody else gave 50 cents within an hour.

Wilson Hurries to Bedside of Sister

The president arose before 7 o'clock after a restless night. He appeared greatly concerned over his sister's condition.

after the Times was printed Friday. Neither of these noble people allowed their names to escape. They just gave through the love of giving.

The $30 check bought the tickets. It was sent to the Southern Home, where the hard working mother's two children she couldn't care for have lived, and it reached her. The rest of the money, $27.10, also has been sent to the superintendent, Mrs. M. A. Morrison, and was forwarded to the mother. It will beat her to her destination and with it she can buy clothing and other things for her four little ones.

Church Donates Lunch.

The United Presbyterian congregation, of which the Rev. F. B. Ringland is pastor, prepared lunch enough to last the family until they reach their grandfather's, so the five left in comfortable shape, the mother's heart bursting with gratitude and tears streaming from her eyes as she told Mrs. Morrison farewell.

The Times took an especial interest in this case, because the mother, deserted by her husband, had proved faithful to her trust, had labored so hard for her children, and finally had a chance to have them all of them, properly cared for. Therefore the Times thanks heartily all those who contributed to this worthy case. Just watch, it will come back ten-fold some day.

Wire Flashes

NEWKIRK, ORE.—A few minutes after being married, Don Snyder of Vale, Oreg., was arrested on a charge of jumping a board bill.

AMSTERDAM.—Unconfirmed reports are that General von Falkenhayn will succeed Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg as imperial chancellor this month. It was said Germany will reopen her submarine campaign.

PITTSBURGH.—The Ohio Oil company has purchased the Mid-Kansas Oil and Gas company, according to an announcement. The price is understood to have been in excess of $3,000,000.

BERLIN.—A veteran of the American civil war who resides in Darmstadt has not received his pension for months owing to the British censorship, says the Overseas News Agency.

A Private's Diary

By Fritz Blumenthal.

SANTA MARIE AND LA FERIA PUMP STATION, Sept. 6.—It has been a very nice and comparatively cool day with a good breeze coming in from the ocean. But at times during the day we were about to curse breeze, place and everything else. The Rio Grande, now almost overflowing, is carrying on top of her muddy waters some of the worst refuse that has been thrown into the San Juan by bandits or others in the interior of Mexico. There is flooding down by our camp dead horses, cattle, hogs, cats, dogs and everything else, all in a decomposed state and filling the atmosphere with a vile perfume.

The border people are moving their stock and families to safety in the inland villages, but we are to stay here as long as it seems safe. The guard will be doubled tonight in the necessary precaution for a quick move. Our trenches and rifle pits, so nicely dug and of which every one of us felt proud, are full of water (seepage from the river) and entirely useless.

Lieutenant McLain went to San Benito this morning to spend the remainder of the week with Mrs. McLain. I think that gives an explanation of the fruit punch incident. Lieutenant Robert Carl is in command during Lieutenant McLain's absence.

HUNDRED CARS OF COAL REQUIRED FOR SCHOOLS

Filling of Bins to Begin Very Soon; Contracts for 3,500 Tons.

One hundred medium-sized flat coal cars will be required to bring into Oklahoma City the coal to keep warm its 15,000 school children this winter. The board of education has appropriated $13,000 for fuel purposes, which will be spent for about 3,500 tons of coal. An ordinary flat car carries about thirty-five tons. High school coal costs $3.40 and ward coal $3.90 a ton.

Velvet's the Only Wear

A velvet season. That's enough to know. When the fashion barometer registers velvet it follows as the night the day that the modes will be rich, beautiful, picturesque, not to say glorious. Velvet is the apogee of fabrics, the "ultima thule" of fashion. Velvet satisfies the soul of woman. The stylists, the writers in magazines devoted to dress, are intoxicated with the velvet serum. Velvet collars and cuffs, velvet bands, borders and braids, velvet hats, velvet dresses, coats, suits and wraps!

Let us show you our velvets. Imported, domestic, every color and width. The variety is fairly overwhelming.

Velvets in street shades—Burgundy, plum, wistaria, gray, blue and black, 36 to 42 inches wide. Exquisite children finish—$4.50 to $6 yard. Coatings—fabrics made in imitation of fur—silver fox, blue fox, beaver, broadtail, seal and silk plush, 52 and 56 inches—$6.50 to $12.50 yard.

Autumn in the Silk Store

And silks are correspondingly rich, because the prosperity of the times makes women's thoughts silken. Last spring we foresaw the autumn posture of the modes. That is why we are prepared. More silks, finer and more varied than ever before.

Gros de Londres. Loveliest of Jacquard patterns. Dozens of combinations. Blue, wistaria, green and red combined with black, and so on, 36 inches—$2.50 per yard. Pussy Willow. Wonderful Japanese designs and colors. Your attention is especially directed to the butterfly patterns, 42 inches—$3.50 yard. Money-back tariff—pure skein dye and pure silk. Black and many colors, $2 yard. Thirty-six inches wide.

Golden Laces, and Silver

Marvelous indeed, and our customers are rhapsodizing over them. Theaters, dancing, dinners and receptions—the gowns for these occasions will be silvered over or gilded in these exquisite laces. Glad to show them to you. The variety is first in Oklahoma.

Trimming edges in gold and silver, narrow, 18c to $1 yard.

Silver lace edges, run with gold or silver threads and combined with Persian or pastel shades, 1 to 9 inches, 50c to $1.50 yard.

Heavy silver and gold laces, bands and edges, rose patterns and other florals. They are for evening gowns; 4 to 12 inches—$2.50 to $7.50 yard.

Flouncings—15 to 36 inches wide. Silk malines embroidered in gold, silver and colors. The variety is wide—$1.25 to $12 yard.

Rose Trimmings, tiny French buds to large corsages—50c to $4 yard.

New Medallion and Camisole Laces

The demand for them is quick and nimble. Plenty here—a shipment is just arrived. They are different laces—prettier—daintier. German, Normandy, French and Plate Valenciennes and Medallions. Deep points with ribbon beading, scalloped edges with beadings, deep separate points, etc. 25c to 65c yard.

PLAYGROUNDS PLANS TO BE FORMED THIS WEEK

Inspection of Outdoor Space at Each School to Be Made for Report.

What disposition will be made of the $15,000 voted recently at a special election for playground purposes will be determined this week when Superintendent Whiteford and J. G. Sterling, head janitor of the Oklahoma City schools, will make a complete survey of the grounds surrounding each of the thirty ward buildings.

Following this inspection, Mr. Whiteford and Mr. Sterling will submit a report to the playground committee of the board of education, which in turn will approve it and present it either to a special session of the board or at its regular meeting the first of next month. The playground committee is composed of John Hope, chairman; A. L. Welsh and E. T. Lane.

Millionaire Ill, Declines Doctor

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—Federal investigation into the affairs of Edward W. Morrison, the aged millionaire, was likely not to be resumed today because of the reported illness of Morrison. He was said to have refused to permit a physician to see him. Developments in connection with the mysterious Edward Douglas, who appeared in the case for the first time last Thursday were to be sought. Canceled checks amounting to approximately $90,000, made payable to "Douglas" were found in the possession of Morrison.

Chicago Banks Facing Inquiry

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—Recent closing of private banks owned by Adolph Silver and company and John A. Krzywoszewski led State's Attorney Hoyne to begin a search today for evidence of insolvency in other privately owned institutions here. Krzywoszewski was arrested in Michigan last week and a search is being made for Max Silver, chief owner of the defunct bank.
